

We'd like to reassure you that it's business as usual at CITP Ltd. We're 100% operational, ready for your training requirement, providing you with the same excellent service you've come to expect.

We are committed to ensuring the health and safety of our colleagues and customers, as well as minimising any disruption to the services we offer.

Whilst continuing to provide health, safety and practical skills training, we have implemented additional measures to reduce the risk of catching or spreading the virus.

All delegates and visitors to our training centre must wash their hands thoroughly on arrival and will be asked to do so regularly throughout the day. Anyone who has been advised to self-isolate must not attend their course and should contact us to rearrange.

If clients wish to reschedule their courses for any delegates who may be unwell, or from a vulnerable group who may be concerned about attending at this time we will, of course, be accommodating in the current climate.
